and that it will work out.

SPEAKER: Thank you, Senator Duis. At this point, if we are through with the dialogue, we'll move to the one bill that we have on Final Reading. It will be necessary that we clear the floor and have the Senators in their seats, please, in order to prepare for Final Reading of the one bill this morning. While the Senators are going to their seats, the chair would like to introduce 8 students from the 7th grade school of Willard at York, Nebraska. Their instructors are Mrs. Bob Cunningham and Mrs. Gale Nordlund. They're Senator Epke's constituents and they are seated in the north balcony. Additionally, Senator Kremer has a constituent here this morning, Miss Deborah Maness, a political science student from Wesleyan University. She is seated under the north balcony.

CLERK: Mr. President, I, inadvertently, failed to get Senator Goodrich excused this morning.

SPEAKER: Are there objections to Senator Goodrich's absence? If there are none, so ordered. Senator Duis, would you turn off your page light--your chair light. Thank you.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to bracket LB 93 on Select File. Signed, Senator Carpenter.

SPEAKER: Any other bills on the desk?

CLERK: Nothing, Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Senator Nore, did you wish to be recognized? For what purpose do you rise, Senator.

SENATOR NORE: To point a personal privilege, I'd like to ask a question of Senator Skarda if he'll yield.

SPEAKER: Senator Skarda, Senator Nore has a question for you.

SENATOR NORE: I tried to follow the Attorney General's letter concerning the Metropolitan Utilities giving away land to non-profit organizations. Now, can they or can't they? What is the--

SENATOR SKARDA: Well, as I interpret it. The really ticklish question and that's why I got the opinion to begin with and it
